NEWS ABOUT THE WAR.

No Confirmation of the Serious Boer Losses in Battle.

WATER SUPPLY AT MAFEKING

Has Been Cut Off By Transvaal Forces—Discussions in Parliament Regarding the South African Situation.

London, Oct. 18.—Up to noon no confirmation had been received of the report of the serious Boer losses at Mafeking, but stories are arriving from various points so persistently and circumstantially that it appears probable the burghers have met with some measure of reverse.

Accounts of the action at Mafeking are beginning to arrive from Pretoria, therefore if Boers had any success it is bound soon to be known.

As foreshadowed recently, they have succeeded in cutting off the water supply at Mafeking; but it is said that there are sufficient wells in the town to supply the inhabitants.

A new and serious military situation is the arising of the warlike tribe of Basutos under Chief Mchoko against the Orange Free State.

Queen's Message.

London, Oct. 18.—In the house of commons the first lord of the treasury and government leader, Arthur J. Balfour, brought in the following message from the queen: "The state of affairs in Africa having constituted, in the opinion of her majesty, a case of emergency within the meaning of the act of parliament, her majesty deems it proper to provide additional means for military service. She has, therefore, thought it right to communicate to the house that her majesty is, by proclamation, about to order the embodiment of the militia and to call out the militia reserve force or such part thereof as her majesty may think necessary for permanent service."

The calling out of the militia and the military reserves has occasioned widespread wonderment. It is freely rumored that the government is determined to demonstrate to Europe that the British army is not a negative quantity.

Probably both the attitude of Europe and that of the natives in South Africa have something to do with this movement and the lavish display of force is intended doubtless not only to check the ill will apparent on both sides of the Rhine and beyond the Vistula, but also to guard against the "black peril."

According to the statistics the militia including the permanent staff and the militia reserves numbers 132,493.

It is not believed that the militia are to be sent to South Africa. Presumably they will replenish the denuded British garrison towns and thus permit the government to send to the cape all the regiments rendered necessary by developments in South Africa.

Battle Expected.

London, Oct. 18.—The war office has issued the following statement: "News has been received from General Sir George Stewart White, the general commanding in Natal, that the anticipated movement of the Boer forces across the Drakensberg, already reported from several quarters, was likely to be continued on October 17 in which case some of them might be expected to arrive at Boaan Bank that night and probably come into contact with our cavalry between Ladysmith and the passes of Drakensberg. On the north the Boer forces from Ingagene are advancing, accompanied by a few batteries of artillery. On the Buffalo river the Boers from Vryheid are moving towards Vantes and Rookes drifts."

Boers Victorious.

Lorenzo, Marquese, Oct. 13.—The Volksten, the Boer official organ at Pretoria, gives the following account of the occupation of the British camp at Ramathlabama, just north of Mafeking: "The British camp at Ramathlabama has been captured and sacked by General Cronje after severe fighting. Many burghers were killed or wounded. The British loss is not known." The Volksten adds that "Success has thus far everywhere attended the burghers," although it admits that in the various skirmishes near Mafeking and at other points the Boer casualties number some 60 or 70 killed and wounded.

Pretoria, Oct. 17.—General Jan H. M. Kock, second in command of the Boer forces, is still at Ingogo. He has cannon commanding Bothas and Linnet Passes and has cut the railway between Dundee and De Jaager's Drift. Several Transvaal commandos are removing toward the Biggers Berg mountains to the south of Glencoe.

CONGRESSMAN LENTZ

And Others Speak at Anti-Imperialist Conference.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Delegates to the anti-imperialist conference at Central Music hall held the second day's session and resumed the task of completing the organization of a Nationalist Imperial league. J. Sterling Morton of Nebraska presided. The speaker of the morning was Herbert Myrick of Springfield, Mass. Following Mr. Myrick's speech a general discussion of the Philippine question occupied the time until noon. A public mass meeting was then held, conducted by Hon. J. Sterling Morton. Congressman J. J. Lentz and Rev. Herbert S. Bigelow of Cincinnati delivered speeches.

Burned In a Hotel.

Greenlake, Wis., Oct. 18.—Terrace Beach Casino, a large hotel owned by S. W. Meyer, burned to the ground. Mr. and Mrs. Jenks, parents of Mrs. Meyer, were burned to death. The loss on the building and contents will reach $60,000 partially covered by insurance. Mr. Jenks was lying very ill in bed and not expected to live. Mrs. Jenks made an heroic attempt to save her husband, but before she could rescue him the flames cut off all escape and the old couple burned to death.

Refugees in Distress.

Pietermaritzburg, Oct. 18.—It is reported on reliable authority that Boers in parties of two or three are arriving in the Umvoti country from the Transvaal and are being accommodated on various farms. Pietermaritzburg itself is crowded with refugees, to shelter whom all the public buildings are being utilized. There is much distress. Seven thousand natives have entered Natal from the Transvaal within the last week, and most of them have gone to Zululand.

Department of Commerce.

Washington, Oct. 18.—President McKinley will, it is expected, devote considerable attention in his forthcoming annual message to another legislative branch of the government with a cabinet office at his head to have charge of interstate and foreign commerce. It seems to be pretty well settled that a recommendation will be made for a new department of commerce, but its full scope is still a matter for discussion.

Valuable Lumber Burned.

Parsnos, W. Va., Oct. 18.—Immense forest fires, miles in extent, are raging in the mountains near here. Millions of feet of lumber are being bid up and other property is in imminent danger. Residents had to fight to keep the fire out of Hendricks, three miles from here, and it looks as if the same would have to be done here. Smoke like a dense fog hangs over the town at night. The many miles stretch of blaze is a grand sight.

Investigating Trusts.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The industrial commission continued its inquiry into the trust question, the witnesses being President Daniel C. Reed of Chicago, of the American Tin Plate company; William Dels of Chicago, president of the National Steel company; Charles S. Guthrie of Pittsburgh, president of the American Steel Hoop company, and Judge William H. Moore, the promoter of these and other trusts.

Domestic Infelicity.

New Orleans, Oct. 18.—Oscar Everhardt, a musician, went to a corner grocery, borrowed a pistol, and, returning home, shot his wife through the head while she slept. He then turned the weapon upon himself. Everhardt is dying and his wife is seriously wounded. Domestic infelicity is given as the cause of the tragedy. Everhardt was with Hood's immunes in Cuba.

Japan's Naval Manoeuvres.

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 18.—Advices from Japan are that about April next a naval manoeuvre is to be held on the largest scale yet attempted in Japan. Ships numbering some 160 will participate in it. The emperor will assume command and manoeuvres will be carried out as though the vessels were actually engaged in conflict with a foreign power.

Klondike Gold.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 18.—The last big shipment of gold from the Klondike by way of the upper Yukon and Lynn canal came on the steamer Dirigo. There was over $1,050,000 worth of actual treasure. Dawson's two leading banks consigned the principal portion of the Dirigo's cargo, having purchased the gold from miners.

Spaniards Going to Cuba.

Havana, Oct. 18.—During the past 60 days there have arrived here over 2,000 Spaniards, who say that it is impossible to obtain work in Spain and that the government is assisting them to emigrate to Cuba. The merchants here are giving employment to all for whom they can possibly find positions.

BRYAN AT LOUISVILLE

Old Time Rally of Kentucky Democrats at the Falls City.

THE BARBECUE A FEATURE.

Among the Attractions in the Parade Was the Cook County Marching Club—Other Points of Meeting.

Louisville, Oct. 18.—Democrats of Louisville and Jefferson county celebrated in royal fashion. It is the first time they have taken an audible and visible part in the state campaign, which is now at its height. Besides the Democratic nominees for state offices a large number of Democratic leaders from other sections were in the city.

In honor of the visitors, Mayor Weaver has issued a proclamation declaring a half-holiday. The justification is in the form of an old-time Kentucky barbecue at the Jockey club grounds. Arrangements were made to feed 20,000 people with burgoo and barbecued meat and to entertain them with music and speeches.

Hon. William J. Bryan, William Goebel and ex-Senator J. C. S. Blackburn and others of the party in which in the last two days has been on a trip through western and central Kentucky came to the city to take part in the celebration and most of the leaders made speeches during the afternoon.

In addition 250 stalwart Cook county (Ill.) Democrats were present to urge the Democracy of the state to stand by the regular nominees. The Chicagoans reached here on a special train over the Big Four railroad this morning and were met by hundreds of Louisville Democrats, including a number of political clubs. The march from the Seventh street station was headed by Mayor Weaver and four brass bands enlivened the progress up town. Good-sized crowds gave the visitors a noisy welcome as they made their way to the Galt house. Here breakfast was served, after which the Chicagoans marched out Fourth avenue to Hill street and there took cars for the race course.

The gates at Churchill Downs were thrown open early and the patter of thoroughbred's hoofs soon gave way to political harangue. The exercises were opened by Mayor Weaver with an address of welcome. Then there was patriotic music and more speaking. When the appetites of the faithful had been sufficiently whetted the throng was turned loose on the feast that only a Kentuckian can prepare and few but Kentuckians can thoroughly enjoy.

The Bryan party left Junction City at 6 a. m., took breakfast at Burgin and reached Harrodsburg at 9 where the first meeting of the day was held. W. C. Bell presided and introduced Mr. Bryan as "the peerless Democrat." The meeting was held in the public square, an audience of 4,000 being present. Great enthusiasm was manifested throughout. The reception accorded Mr. Bryan was warm and demonstrative. Mr. Bryan repeated that he did not come to command the people how to vote. He repeated the right of every citizen was to vote as his conscience approved, but that as the Louisville platform endorsed the Chicago platform Mr. Goebel as the representative of his party should receive the united support of his party and that there will be plenty of time after the election to adjust the personal differences.

Mr. Bryan said the trust question was like the flea question, all fleas were like one, did little harm, but many became a pest. We had trusts in 1896, but not so many as now. Trusts have become a pest. He accused the Republican attorney general, now candidate for governor, with failing to enforce the trust laws of the state. He accused him of enforcing the law against the man who stole a loaf of bread and permitted the great thieves to go unpunished.

A plea was made for Jo Blackburn's election to the senate on the ground that he was needed in the senate to adjust the new questions growing out of the Spanish war.

In the same line he favored the election of Goebel for governor, who, if need be, can appoint a senator in case of failure to elect by legislature ex-Senator Blackburn. Senator Goebel, candidate for governor, also addressed the meeting.

Mrs. Bryan, by special invitation of the ladies of Harrodsburg, occupied a seat on the platform.

Geologists in Alaska.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Reports received from the geological survey parties in Alaska show that they are pushing well into the country with some results. Geologists Brooks and Peters already have progressed from the head of Lynn canal to the head of White river in their efforts to discover the sources of the Copper, Nesbua and Tanana rivers. This party will continue to Eagle City on the Yukon and to complete their explorations by working up to the Mynook district by the most feasible route.

PRESIDENT'S TRAVELS.

Over Five Thousand Miles One Hundred Speeches.

Cleveland, Oct. 18.—President McKinley and party reached this city at 4:45 a. m. The train was sidetracked near Oberlin, O., at 2 a. m. and remained there until 8 a. m. At the Lake Shore depot here a reception committee and members of the city council, headed by Mayor J. H. Farley, welcomed the president. Senator Hanna was warmly greeted at the depot by the entire party.

Carriages had been provided for a 10-mile drive out, Euclid avenue and through Gordon and Wade parks.

President and Mrs. McKinley dropped out of the line for a time and called on Mrs. Duncan, the president's sister, whose home is on Oakdale avenue.

When the procession turned its course back to the city the president's carriage was again at the head.

At the Hollenden hotel the drive ended and a short reception was held in the parlors. Colonel Myron T. Harlick entertained the presidential party at luncheon. The remainder of the party traveling with the president were given a luncheon and reception at the Union club.

At 2:30 p. m. the presidential special departed over the Erie line. Youngstown was reached at 5 p. m. Brief stops were made enroute at Warren and Niles. Washington will be reached at 11:30 a. m. Thursday via the Pennsylvania lines. A total of 5,009 miles will have been covered and President McKinley will have made almost 100 speeches.

Climax of Jubilee.

Cincinnati, Oct. 18.—The jubilee missionary conventions of the Christian church, which began last Thursday, reached their climax when the American Christian Missionary society continued its sessions in sections. There are over 12,000 visitors and many from this city and vicinity. Music hall, with a seating capacity of over 5,500, was unable to accommodate the audiences and other halls and churches were used for the overflow meetings. The Odeon hall was used for the business session with Dr. W. F. Richardson presiding. Reports were heard from all the committees on different branches of the work.

Shot by Their Own Men.

Paris, Oct. 18.—The minister of the colonies, M. DeCraix, has received an official dispatch announcing that Captain Voulet and Captain Chanolne of the outlawed French expedition in the Sudan, whose members recently massacred most of the members of the expedition under Lieutenant Colonel Clobbe, sent to arrest those officers on charges of cruelty and insubordination, have been shot by their own men.

Lawton Ready to Move.

Arroyo, Luzon, via Manila, Oct. 18.—General Lawton is ready to begin his northern movement on the railroad around the right of General MacArthur's column. He will have about 2,000 effective fighting men consisting of the Twenty-fourth, two battalions of the Twenty-second, a company of the Thirty-seventh, 200 friendly Macabebes scouts, 600 of the Fourth cavalry mounted and 100 dismounted.

In Favor of Children.

Redwood City, Cal., Oct. 18.—The sensational suit brought by Robert and Maria Chatham in the San Mateo county superior court to secure an acknowledgment of their claim to be considered the children of the late capitalist, Robert Mills, has ended with a verdict in their favor. They are now entitled to share in the division of the $300,000 estate.

Many Delegates Present.

Pittsburg, Oct. 18.—Nearly 200 delegates from all parts of the country were present when the eighteenth annual convention of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church were called to order by the president, Mrs. Clinton B. Fisk of New York.

Columbus, O., Oct. 18.—The Crank Developing Machine company, Akron, capital stock $10,000; the Commercial Tribune company, Cincinnati, amendment to certificate of increase of capital stock (preferred) of said company filed June 27, 1899; the Jewish League, Cincinnati; the People's Automobile company, Cleveland, capital stock $50,000.

DO NOT BETRAY AGUINALDO

An Insurgent Officer Offers to Sell Out to General Otis.

DONS DISCOVERED IN PLOT.

Former Spanish Soldiers Who Were Serving in the Filipino Army Tried to Sell Out to the Americans.

Manilla, Oct. 18.—General Otis has received messages purporting to come from the insurgent general, Pio Del Pilar, offering to sell out his army and to deliver Aguinaldo into the hands of the Americans. Although he is not satisfied that the offer is authentic it is not intrinsically improbable. The policy of General Otis is firmly set against buying any surrenders.

Pio Del Pilar offers, for the sum of $50,000, to refrain from attacking Manila with his army; for the sum of $250,000 he offers to surrender his army after a sham battle, both sides firing into the air, and for the sum of $500,000 he says he will procure the overthrow of the insurrection and the capture of Aguinaldo, Paterno, and the other leaders. In the course of communication he refers to Aguinaldo in contemptuous terms, indicating that strained relations exists between them.

Reports are being received from the districts occupied by the enemy, that the Filipinos believe that Pio Del Pilar has an audacious plan to break through the American lines into Manila and seize General Otis and the archbishop. Possibly these rumors were started with an idea of helping him to make a deal with the Americans.

It is needless to say that the Americans would welcome an attack of that sort. There has been much speculation of late regarding the whereabouts of Pio Del Pilar. The recent attack at La Loma is credited to his men. It is believed that he is now in the vicinity of San Mateo valley with a force of from 1,800 to 3,000 men.

Plot Discovered.

The former Spanish soldiers who were captured by the Filipinos and for a time acted as officers and members of a Filipino artillery regiment located in the vicinity of Santa Rosa, in the Lagunda de Bay district, determined to surrender the artillery to the Americans.

The plot was discovered by the Filipinos who killed seven of the conspirators, the other three escaping to Manila.

It appears that when the surrender was agreed upon the Spaniards delegated one of their number to proceed to Manila and to propose to General Otis to surrender, after a pre-arranged mock battle about 12 pieces, including Krupp and Nordenfildt rapid fire guns well supplied with ammunition from the Lipa power factory, in exchange for certain sums to be paid the Spaniards who were to be pardoned for carrying arms against the Americans and to be transported to Spain.

The delegate left Santa Rosa, and accompanied by three Filipinos, entered the American lines at Calamba. The Filipinos did not proceed far, deciding to await his return at a given time. As the delegate was detained in Manila longer than they had expected they grew suspicious and returned to Santa Rosa. The plot was then revealed and the remaining Spaniards were attacked.

The gunboat Napidan coasting near Santa Rosa perceived two men on the beach hurriedly embarking in a canoe and pushing out toward them. She took them on board and they reported that the Filipinos, on discovering the plot to surrender the artillery, had cut the throats of seven of their Spanish companions and that they themselves had barely escaped with their lives. The three Spaniards are now hiding in Manila, fearing Filipino vengeance. General Otis had declined surrender of artillery for money, but he promises to send the three to Spain.

Accidents in a Storm.

Rome, Oct. 18.—Serious storms accompanied by floods prevail in the southern districts of Italy, working widespread damage. At San Giorgio a bridge and 20 houses have been swept away and it is believed there has been considerable loss of life there. At Monte Mesoula a church was struck by lightning during mass, three persons being killed and 40 others more or less seriously injured.

Guilt or Murder.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Oct. 18.—George Wanko, a pugilist, of Washington, Pa., has been found guilty of manslaughter in causing the death of Felix Carr of St. Albans, W. Va., in a glove contest near here recently.

One month..... $1.50 Six months..... $8.00 One year..... $15.00 THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1899. WEATHER FORECAST—Fair to night and Friday. REPUBLICANS and Brownites have had a great deal to say against the Goebel election law, but Judge A. P. Humphrey, of Louisville, after reviewing the matter at length says: "There can be no doubt that if our election laws are enforced as they are written elections will be fair and free." THE Democratic nominee for Representative, Mr. John W. Alexander, has spent his life among the people of Mason County, and his record as a citizen, business man and official has been an honorable one. He has been true to every trust and that is why the people always rally to his support. It is reported that a certain white Republican of this city in a speech the other night informed his colored brethren that they could vote in November, but that if Goebel won they would not be allowed to vote after that. The more intelligent negroes would give such speakers the laugh. Some of our Republican friends seem ready to resort to any trickery and deception to get votes. They must be afraid of their colored brother when they resort to such talk. In the persons of Mr. John W. Alexander for Representative and Mr. James R. Pugh for Senator the Democrats present a Legislative ticket that is entitled to the cordial and enthusiastic support of every good citizen, no matter what his politics may be. The nominees are men of the highest character, in whose hands the interests of the people will be protected. Elect them and you need have no fear of class legislation. It should be esteemed a privilege to vote for such men as John W. Alexander and James R. Pugh. If any proof were needed to demonstrate Bryan's unfitness for the Presidency, it may be found in the fact of his chasing around the country after the nomination, much after the style of an advance agent for a circus.—Public Ledger. Talking about circuses, have you heard of the McKinley show chasing around over Ohio in a mad effort to save Boss Hanna? There is this difference, however, between Mr. Bryan and Mr. McKinley: The latter degrades the office of President in order to bolster up his own administration, and no doubt does so in obedience to Boss Hanna's orders. In certifying the form of the ballot for the approaching election, Secretary of State Finley failed to include the device of the Brown ticket in a square, as very plainly required by law. The Brown ticket comes second on the ballot, between the Democratic and Republican, and it is charged that Mr. Finley's action was simply a scheme by which the Republicans hoped to have many of the Brown votes counted for Taylor and many of the Democratic votes counted for Brown. Mr. Finley says it was only an "error" on his part, but the singular fact remains that he erred only with the Brown device, and that he violated all precedents when he gave that ticket second place on the ballot and placed the Republicans third. It seems a very plain case of Republican trickery. If there is one thing some Republicans don't seem to favor it is "a free election and fair count." SOMEBODY gives the following antithetical advice: Drink less, breathe more; eat less, chew more; ride less, walk more; clothe less, bathe more; worry less, work more; waste less, give more; write less, read more; preach less, practice more. NO MISREPRESENTATION OF GOODS AT Clooney's. No making of bargains by sacrificing quality! In the life of Charles Phister, now eighty years old, and who has been in Chicago during the last summer, is epitomized the story of what was suffered by supporters of the union and of abolition who lived in the South prior to and throughout the war of the rebellion. For Mr. Phister claims the distinction of having been hung in effigy by his fellow-townsmen of Maysville, Ky., because he voted for Abraham Lincoln, and of having been the only person in Maysville who cast a vote for Fremont for President—in that case standing alone in his community for the cause of abolition. Mr. Phister for some months has been the guest of his son, Walter Phister, 4739 Kenwood avenue, but soon will leave for his home in Kentucky, where he was born and has spent all his life, except when away on brief visits. Some of the facts and incidents in his own life that are typical of the times referred to Mr. Phister tells as follows: "I was the first man who voted the Republican ticket in Maysville. I voted for General Harrison in 1840, and was the only man who voted for General Fremont for President in 1856. I voted for Abraham Lincoln in 1860, for which four others and myself were hung in effigy that night, one being S. L. Blaine, uncle of James G. Blaine; John T. Dye, the wealthy lawyer of Indianapolis, and myself are the only ones now living of the five. "Two of my schoolmates later held rank among our country's greatest Generals. One was General William Nelson, whose amusement when a boy was riding old sows, getting thrown off and his arm broken. This happened three times to my knowledge. Luckily for him, his father was a doctor. "General Grant attended the seminary of Maysville at the same time I did; it was near my home. This was just before he went to West Point. When he came back from West Point the steamer on which he arrived landed at our place on the Ohio river for Grant to visit his former teachers, Rand and Richeson, and his old schoolmates. The seminary was an institute for both males and females. "Grant, being then a modest, bashful young man, he would not go into the school—afraid of the girls, I suppose. He stood outside the seminary, and we all shook hands with him as the first cadet we ever saw. This was about sixty years ago. General Grant is dead, but I am still living and blest with good health and good eyesight. I never had to wear specs—never had a fit of sickness. "In the time before the war it was a dangerous thing for any man in the section where I lived to be known as an abolitionist. That was why it happened that I was hung in effigy in 1860 for voting for Lincoln. At night, after five had voted that day for Lincoln, a few citizens got the devil in them and stretched a rope across the street, from the church to the court house—some said to hang us on, but they only hung us in effigy after midnight, and then set us on fire, rang the court house bell, shouted 'fire,' and then skedaddled. "Those were perilous times for us union men and our families, but we lived through it, and, thank God, it is all over now, and the people of the North and South are united in one family again. "I believe I suffered more and was threatened more than any one else in our section, although my brother, Judge E. O. Phister, was a Democrat and sympathizer with the Confederates. He and I had great talks about the matter, and after the war was over he acknowledged I was right and he was wrong. All my brothers are now dead. My children were all strong for the union and my wife and the girls would keep making flags and hang them out, one or more, all the time—though the rebels would tear them down, especially at night. We managed to keep the home, though once we had to leave it. A large body of rebel soldiers, with about a hundred horses, came to ransack the town and get the money of the banks; but it had been sent to Cincinnati for safety. "They were determined to get me and threatened to tar and feather me because of my union principles; but they did not get me. The Methodist minister and I hid up high, where we could see the rebels hunting and prowling around for me all night. They stole all my grain from my corn crib, which held 1,400 bushels, to feed their horses. "Once I had to flee from home and take my horses and wagon and my family and cross the river into Ohio, as our lives were in danger, but we were spared, for the Lord was on our side." Mr. Phister is still strong and in good health, a fact he attributes to life-long abstinence from the use of either liquor or tobacco. It is his boast, too, that he never uttered an oath. His business life was that of a prosperous lumber mer-

MURDER IN FLEMING.

Wat Bradley Shot and Instantly Killed at Grange City by John Markwell.

A deplorable tragedy was enacted at Grange City, Fleming County, Wednesday.

John Markwell, a miller of Grange City, shot and instantly killed Wat Bradley.

The trouble seems to have originated over Bradley's daughter, who some time since was married to John Crain.

It is said, however, that Crain refused to live with her, and does not now live with her.

Bradley went to Markwell, so the report goes, and asked him about certain reports alleged to have been made concerning his daughter. The two men met Wednesday morning, and Markwell shot Bradley with the result given above.

Both are married men, each about forty-five years of age, and both men of prominence.

"A Wise Woman."
One of the greatest farce successes of the season will be seen at Washington Opera House Saturday, matinee and night. There is not only a great quantity of fun in this farce we are told, but its atmosphere is said to be of a more refined and exquisite quality than usually obtains in farce. The farce is said to be acted with full appreciation of all its qualities by the splendid company which has been assembled in its cast.

Logical Solutions.

We are frequently asked by our friends why it is that we are always busy, and on many days recently unable to wait on all our customers in anything like reasonable time. We can only answer to all inquiries, viz:

We positively let nothing go out of our house that we are not dead sure will fit and wear satisfactory.

As the large majority of our patrons leave the selection of their wants altogether to us, it puts the responsibility entirely upon our shoulders, therefore laying aside altogether the question of honesty, good business policy prompts us to do the right thing by them. Ninety-nine out of a hundred readers of this know our statement is true.

That our efforts to secure the proper stuff for this fall's trade are appreciated, hundreds of splendidly-dressed men and boys of Maysville, Mason and adjoining counties attest to.

Our patrons tell us that nowhere do they find

WENT AFTER P. P. JOHNSTON,

And Gave His Running Mate Some Attention Also—Mr. James N. Kehoe's Speech at Louisville.

[Courier-Journal]

Enthusiastic speeches by State Senator W. W. Utley, of Eddyville, and by J. N. Kehoe of Maysville, enlivened the meeting of the Young Men's Democratic Club Tuesday night.

Senator Utley made a brief talk on the campaign in general and declared emphatically the need of harmonized action on the part of all Democrats. His references to Goebel as a man and leader were greeted with applause.

Mr. Kehoe, who followed him, spoke for an hour, discussing at length the various questions at issue and reviewing the work of the Democratic State convention. He declared that there might have been trickery, there might have been attempts to intimidate and override all established precedent, but these crimes could not be laid at the door of Goebel and his followers. No body of men, he declared, had ever striven harder to gain their rights by an honest fight than had the Goebel people in the convention.

Redwine, he continued, deserved a vote of thanks for his fearlessness in enforcing his rulings, which were fully in accordance with the parliamentary rules governing conventions and debate. On the other hand, Johnston had formed himself into a committee of one to decide appeals and grievances which never rightfully came under his jurisdiction.

He eulogized the personal character of Goebel and declared amid all the abuse heaped upon Goebel no man had been found who could prove aught against his integrity and fearlessness.

His remarks in regard to Brown's candidacy were greeted with laughter and applause, and he closed by inviting all those present to meet him in Frankfort at the inauguration of Senator Goebel as Governor of the State.

HON. JAMES R. PUGH, of Lewis County, Democratic nominee for State Senator, is in town to-day getting acquainted with the voters of Mason County.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and I thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at J. Jas. Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

FROM LINCOLN TO HANNA.

Bryan Points Out the Republican Toggan From Statesmanship to Bossism.

[Extract from W. J. Bryan's speech at Lexington.]

I understand that in this county a large part of the Republican vote is the colored vote. It is possible that the colored man fails to notice the change that has taken place in the Republican party. Can the colored man be so blind that he does not see the descent of the Republican party in the last twenty-five years? Let the colored man or a white Republican look upon Abraham Lincoln and then upon Mark Hanna, and see the to-boggan slide that leads from Lincoln down to Hanna. (Laughter.) Let the colored man remember that the Republican party boasted for thirty years that it applied the Declaration of Independence to the black man, and that it is unwilling to apply it to the brown man, who is only half black. (Applause.) I want the colored man to know that it required hundreds of thousands of lives and hundreds of millions of dollars of money to establish a doctrine that no man could own another man under the American flag, and yet to-day the Republican party claims that this nation owns the Philippine Islands because the Spanish monarch put eight millions of people upon the auction block, and we bought them at $2 apiece. (Applause.) Look at the issues that are before us. The Democratic party is taking the Declaration of Independence for its foundation. We appeal to the people of Kentucky to help us in this great struggle, and if you will elect Goebel and those with him on the ticket by an overwhelming majority, and make the election of Jo Blackburn unanimous, you will give encouragement to every Democrat in the United States. (Applause.)

THREE LIVES LOST.

A Disastrous Fire Breaks Out at Knightstown Indiana.

Knightstown, Ind., Oct. 18.—The most mysterious fire in the history of this town broke out here. Three lives were lost and property which will reach $100,000 or more was destroyed.

The dead are Truman Rhodes, Charles Scutter and Fon Davey. The men were members of the volunteer fire department and were fighting the fire when the front wall of a three-story building fell outward. They were caught by the falling bricks and crushed to death and it is believed that two others met with the same fate. The Masonic temple, the largest building in the city, was destroyed, the grounds with the buildings occupied by C. S. Anderson, dealer in household goods, Green Brothers' saloon and Davey Brothers, dealers in notions. The fire is supposed to have originated from an explosion of natural gas.

Andrade's Answer Expected.

Caracas, V., Oct. 18.—Senhor Mateos, the peace envoy bringing an ultimatum from the insurgent commander, General Cipriano Castro, returned to Caracas from Valencia to meet President Andrade, who is expected to give an answer in the course of the day. President Andrade can not do otherwise than accept the conditions imposed by General Castro, as he is virtually abandoned by all his supporters. Notwithstanding this, he still maintains that it may be possible to transfer the seat of government to Maracabo and continue the fight. The situation here is extremely critical.

A childless home is a cheerless home. The maternal instinct exists in every woman, and when it is ungratified she is deprived of much of the happiness of life. It often happens that childlessness is due to some cause which can be removed, and often is removed by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The vigor and vitality which this remedy imparts to the delicate womanly organs, puts them in a condition of normal health, the lack of which is often the sole obstruction to maternity. Every woman should read Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book containing 1008 pages and 700 illustrations. It is sent entirely free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper bound volume, or 31 stamps for cloth covered. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.
